

Open Burning Information

The Department of Environmental Protection regulates open burning to limit the production of smoke in the interest of air quality, and to reduce the potential of wildfire devastating our natural resources and the surrounding communities. To view regulations and restrictions for outdoor burning, please refer to the following link:

<https://www.state.nj.us/dep/parksandforests/fire/permits.html>