The Rights and Duties of a Volunteer in Local Government Leader's Guide

Who should conduct the seminar? Someone who is comfortable with the issue to answer questions. Depending upon the circumstances, that could be the leader of the volunteer organization, the Municipal Manager/Administrator, the Human Resources Manager, the local unit's General Counsel or Employment Attorney/Advisor, or the local unit's risk manager.

Are all volunteers required to attend? Any volunteer in what is considered as a managerial or supervisory position must attend. The law also requires that the training be "made available" to all other volunteers. However, the organization has the option of making the training mandatory. Attendance must be documented.

How long is the seminar? The formal presentation is about 25 – 30 minutes, mostly consisting of the video. However, the question and answer period at the end could easily add another half hour or more to the seminar.

Section One: Introduction

Under the law, volunteers in organizations that are a part of or are supported by the municipality have many of the same rights and responsibilities as governmental employees. Federal and State law(s) cover such important areas as discrimination, safety, violence, and harassment. To protect you, the municipality has a "no tolerance" policy towards these violations of basic civil rights and expects all individuals associated with the community to conduct themselves consistent with this policy. Today, we will discuss what this means.

The program begins with a twelve-minute video that explains your rights and obligations under the "no tolerance" policy. The video states clearly what types of conduct are unacceptable when interacting with fellow employees. As many of the unacceptable behaviors are also against the law, compliance is essential both for your own protection and to ensure that others not subjected to conduct that might create a hostile environment.

At the end of the video, there will be time to ask questions.

Section Two: Play video, "The Rights and Responsibilities of a Volunteer in Local Government"

Section Three: Question and Answers:

We will now spend a few minutes reviewing Township of Frankford's specific policies and answering any questions you may have. Questions that pertain to a particular individual are not appropriate for this general session and should be asked after the meeting. Further, if anyone feels uncomfortable asking a question during the meeting, I will be available to talk afterwards. If the question involves a legal issue, it will be forwarded to the General Counsel or the Employment Attorney/Advisor who will get back to you.*

Distribute copies of the Civil Rights Resolution and General Complaint Procedure, review each section, and ask if there are any questions.

Note: Make detailed notes of these questions in the attached Question Log and tell the employees that the attorney/advisor will quickly get back to them.
